Tatum E. Timmerman

GREENVILLE, SC

Tatum focuses her practice on workers' compensation matters. Prior to joining the firm, Tatum served as a law clerk to the Honorable Vernon F. Dunbar, a South Carolina Circuit Court Judge, where she gained valuable insight into judicial decision-making, legal research and courtroom procedure. She also gained in-house experience as a legal intern working with the legal team of a major automotive manufacturer during law school.

In addition to her practice, Tatum coaches teams for the Charleston School of Law Transactional Law Team competitions. Outside of work, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, attending Clemson football games and spending time with her golden retriever, Sully, who enjoys swimming and long walks on the Swamp Rabbit Trail.
