Dear Clients and Friends, Since our founding in 1995, McAngus Goudelock & Courie has strived to meet and exceed the needs of our clients in many different ways. Practice areas have come and gone, but our core business remains the same – insurance defense. In a continued effort to serve you best, we are excited to announce that MGC has a new look. With a new logo and website, we celebrate our position as a leading insurance defense firm built on metrics and efficiencies. We invite you to check out our easy-to-navigate website, where all the tools you need are a click away. Welcome to the future of MGC – new look, same great people. Jay Courie, Managing Member
