Alexzandra "Allie" Andrews

PROVIDENCE, RI

Allie Andrews' practice focuses on insurance coverage, motor vehicle litigation and premises liability, where she represents insurance companies and their insureds in complex civil matters. With a few years of litigation experience, Allie brings a strategic, client-focused approach to defending claims, emphasizing tailored legal strategies and consistent communication throughout the life of each case.

Prior to joining MGC, Allie practiced as an associate attorney with a law firm specializing in family law and mediation, where she focused on family law and developed extensive courtroom experience. She has also worked in personal injury litigation, first as a senior paralegal and later as an associate attorney, giving her valuable insight into plaintiff-side strategy and claim development. This diverse background enables Allie to anticipate opposing arguments, assess exposure early and craft effective defense approaches aligned with client goals. She has significant trial and courtroom experience, including preparing and arguing motions, managing trial preparation and representing clients at trial.

Allie has been recognized as a Massachusetts Rising Star in both 2025 and 2026, reflecting her professional achievements and commitment to excellence in practice. She also remains active in her community as a mock trial coach for Attleboro High School. In her personal time, Allie enjoys spending time with her dog and painting cartoons.
