Allen Masi

RICHMOND, VA

Allen Masi’s practice focuses on insurance coverage in our Richmond office where he represents insurers in a variety of coverage-related issues and disputes. Allen brings a thoughtful and analytical approach to his work, drawing on his judicial experience to evaluate legal issues from multiple perspectives and develop solutions for clients.

Prior to joining MGC, Allen served as a judicial law clerk for the Spotsylvania Circuit Court, where he gained valuable insight into courtroom procedure, legal research and judicial decision-making. His experience working closely with the court provides him with a strong foundation for analyzing complex legal issues and supporting clients through all stages of litigation and dispute resolution.

Outside of work, Allen enjoys golfing and spending time with his wife and daughter.
