Anna "Logan" Caymol

ATLANTA, GA

Logan Caymol focuses her practice on litigation. She represents clients in a variety of civil matters and brings a thoughtful, client-focused approach to her work. Logan emphasizes consistent communication, empathy and persistence, working to understand each client's goals while helping navigate complex legal challenges.

Prior to joining the firm, Logan gained experience in general litigation through clerkship and internship opportunities, including serving as a summer legal intern with a litigation firm. She also worked as a law clerk supporting attorneys in a variety of litigation matters, developing a strong foundation in legal research, case analysis and client service.

Outside of work, Logan enjoys fitness and wellness activities, traveling, photography and spending time with her two golden retrievers, Lumi and Palo. A former collegiate softball player, she remains passionate about athletics and competition.
