Bennette Sharpe

RICHMOND, VA

Ben Sharpe's practice focuses on litigation, insurance coverage and construction litigation at the firm's Richmond office, where he represents individuals and businesses including contractors, banks and mortgage companies. With over a decade of experience, Ben understands the importance of "prioritizing communication with clients at every stage of their case." Prior to joining MGC, Ben practiced in-house at an insurance company in Richmond. He also has experience practicing creditors' rights law, real estate law and state regulatory matters.

In Ben's personal time, he enjoys hiking, spending time with his wife and daughter and playing bagpipes at community events with the Old Dominion Firefighters Emerald Society Pipes and Drums.
