

Candace Rodgers

ATLANTA, GA

Candace Rodgers's practice focuses on professional liability, premises liability and trucking in the firm's Atlanta office, where she represents insurance companies and corporate entities. With 18 years of experience, Candace "seek[s] to listen, understand and respect concerns, thoughts and perspectives." She believes "this proves extremely important in creating a collaborative working approach, with efforts to ensure continued partnership and long-lasting relationships."

Prior to joining MGC, Candace practiced general liability, personal injury, medical malpractice and workers' compensation in Atlanta. Initially, she began her practice as a real estate attorney. Candace has also been second chair counsel for five-to-seven-day jury trials.

Outside of MGC, Candace enjoys spending time with family and friends, watching sports and mentoring young girls to foster self-worth and esteem.
