Candice C. Hargett

OXFORD, MS

---

Candice has almost 20 years of legal experience representing employers in workers’ compensation matters throughout Mississippi and West Tennessee. She routinely presents seminars on current workers’ compensation trends to employers, insurance carriers and third party administrators. In addition, Candice has extensive experience handling school related litigation, including defending public school districts in litigation related to employment discrimination/retaliation, constitutional law and civil rights claims. She also has experience in general liability defense, including construction, transportation and contractual disputes. Candice has tried cases to verdict in both Mississippi and Tennessee.

Candice enjoys reading, shopping and attending Ole Miss sporting events.
