Christian T. Layne

NASHVILLE, TN

Christian Layne focuses his practice on litigation, including motor vehicle litigation, premises liability, products liability and trucking and transportation matters. He represents small business owners, employees and individuals in a variety of civil disputes. Christian takes a comprehensive approach to each case, working to understand his clients' goals and using technology and data to help develop effective strategies.

Prior to becoming an associate, Christian served as a summer law clerk with the firm, where he gained experience supporting litigation matters.

In his personal time, Christian enjoys spending time with family, playing recreational sports and watching football. He is an avid Tennessee Titans and Tennessee Volunteers fan.
