Corinne A. Reed

BOSTON, MA

Corinne Reed brings over a decade of experience in civil litigation, with a focus on general liability, premises liability and products liability. She is admitted to practice in both state and federal courts in Massachusetts.

Prior to joining MGC, Corinne served as Director of Litigation for a defense firm's Civil Litigation Practice Group, where she managed complex cases and guided strategic litigation efforts. Earlier in her career, she practiced with two New England firms, contributing to multi-jurisdictional products liability class actions and high-profile litigation. Corinne's work included drafting key briefs and arguments in class certification and settlement approval, participating in groundbreaking bellwether trials and handling appellate matters in significant class action cases. She also served as lead counsel in breach of contract litigation and advised clients on compliance issues under consumer protection and credit reporting laws.
