Danielle M. Meli

GARDEN CITY, NY

Danielle Meli's practice focuses on motor vehicle litigation and premises liability where she represents commercial defendants, insured corporations and individual clients. Danielle approaches each case with careful preparation and clear, consistent communication, providing clients with a steady and reliable presence throughout the litigation process.

Prior to joining MGC, Danielle practiced as an associate attorney with a full-service insurance litigation law firm where she focused on personal injury defense. She also previously worked with a personal injury plaintiff's firm, giving her valuable insight into both sides of personal injury litigation. During law school, Danielle gained additional experience through placements with the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office, The Legal Aid Society of Suffolk County and the Nassau County District Court, developing a well-rounded foundation in litigation and courtroom practice.

In her personal time, Danielle enjoys cooking and baking, skiing, going to the beach and spending time with friends and family.
