

Darcy M. Compton

COLUMBIA, SC

Darcy Compton's practice focuses on workers' compensation in the firm's Columbia office. "With each file I am assigned, I work diligently to ensure I fulfill all roles necessary for each client according to their specific needs and the facts of each case," she says.

Prior to joining MGC, Darcy was a law clerk at the Office of the Governor, House of Representatives: LCI Committee, Workers' Compensation Commission and an in-house legal clerk at an investment company.

Outside of MGC, Darcy enjoys reading mystery/thriller novels. She studied the intersection of the psychology and legal fields while abroad at Warwick University in Coventry, England and finds true-crime stories fascinating.
