Denver M. L. Huff

MYRTLE BEACH, SC

Denver Huff's practice focuses on premises liability, motor vehicle litigation, construction litigation as well as trucking and transportation in MGC's Myrtle Beach office. Prior to joining MGC, she was a paralegal in Ohio and Virginia, supporting cases involving employment law, civil litigation and family law.

While earning her Juris Doctor, Denver served as a student attorney with the WVU College of Law Veteran's Advocacy Clinic. There, she assisted veterans nationwide with benefits claims and represented local veterans in property and consumer law disputes. She also successfully tried a contract dispute case on behalf of a non-veteran client.

Outside the office, Denver enjoys painting with her two-year-old, running with her doodles, discovering quirky finds on Etsy, cooking global recipes, exploring new wines, working out and reading spooky fiction and pop-psychology.
