Devyn Fischer

GREENVILLE, SC

Devyn Fischer focuses her practice on litigation matters, including premises liability, motor vehicle litigation, products liability and management and professional liability. She represents clients in a variety of civil matters and is committed to providing responsive, efficient and transparent service throughout the litigation process.

Prior to joining MGC, Devyn served as a law clerk to the Honorable William C. McMaster, III, where she gained valuable insight into judicial decision-making, legal analysis and courtroom procedure. This experience provides her with a strong foundation for evaluating legal issues and developing practical strategies on behalf of her clients.

Outside of work, Devyn enjoys playing pickleball and attending baseball games. She is also involved in coaching mock trial at Furman University.
