

Elizabeth Millender

COLUMBIA, SC

Elizabeth Millender's practice focuses on employment law, motor vehicle litigation, litigation and premises liability in the firm's Columbia office, where she represents insurance carriers. Elizabeth believes in the importance of "providing an up-front and honest assessment of the case and being there to answer any questions clients may have." Prior to joining MGC, she practiced plaintiff's employment law in South Carolina.

In her personal time, Elizabeth enjoys spending time outside, traveling to as many national parks as she can, going to concerts and cheering on the Gamecocks. She spends most of her time outside of work with her husband, Keith, and their one-year-old daughter.
