Eric A. Fitzgerald, CPCU, CLU

PHILADELPHIA, PA

With a career dedicated to representing the interests of the insurance industry, Eric Fitzgerald has 30 years' experience handling coverage and professional liability matters for insurance companies in State and Federal courts throughout Pennsylvania and New York. He is one of a select number of attorneys in private practice who has received his designation as a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU), Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) and Associate in Reinsurance (ARe). Eric's practice includes all Professional, General Liability, Auto, Property, Cyber, Inland Marine, LH&D and ERISA and Workers' Compensation policy lines. He also represents Insurance Agents and Brokers as both Litigation and General Counsel, and is a coverage Arbitrator and Mediator. Eric is also an appellate attorney and has argued over 30 appeals.

Eric has served on the Executive Committee of the CPCU Society's National Board of Governors, the Nominating Committee and its Champions Committee and is a former CPCU instructor. In addition, he participated in drafting several CPCU textbooks in association with the American Institute.

Eric is a Certified Litigation Management Professional with the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance (CLM) and a former instructor in the CLM's Claims College. He is also a member of the Professional Liability Underwriting Society (PLUS), the Property Legal Research Bureau (PLRB) and the American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC).

Eric has been recognized for his achievements in the legal industry, and holds an AV Preeminent® Peer Review Rating™ by Martindale-Hubbell®. He began his career as a judicial clerk for the New York State Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Fourth Department where he participated in the drafting of many significant coverage decisions in New York State.
