

Ethan N. Badin

CHARLOTTE, NC

Ethan Badin's practice focuses on litigation matters, including premises liability, motor vehicle litigation and insurance coverage. Ethan takes a proactive and service-oriented approach to his work, anticipating client needs and providing clear, thoughtful support to help matters move smoothly and efficiently.

Ethan began his legal career at MGC, where he previously served in several roles prior to his admission to the North Carolina Bar. He worked as a workers' compensation law clerk, litigation law clerk and senior law clerk, gaining early exposure to litigation strategy, claims evaluation and client communication. This experience has provided Ethan with a strong foundation in insurance defense and the practical operations of litigation, allowing for a seamless transition into his role.

In his personal time, Ethan enjoys taking his dog on walks and hikes, playing golf on the weekends and watching the Baltimore Ravens and New York Yankees.
