Eunice Park

ATLANTA, GA

Eunice Park focuses her practice on litigation, including motor vehicle litigation and construction litigation. She represents general contractors, developers, subcontractors, property owners, commercial drivers and transportation companies in civil matters. Eunice emphasizes responsiveness, attention to detail and clear communication, working to understand each client's priorities and ensure every case is handled with care.

Prior to joining the firm, Eunice gained experience through externships with federal courts and a local government law office, where she worked on matters involving bankruptcy, land use and zoning, tax law and civil litigation.

Outside of work, Eunice enjoys golfing, hiking and spending time with family and friends.
