Gabrielle T. Williams

COLUMBIA, SC

Gabrielle Williams focuses her practice on litigation, motor vehicle litigation, premises liability, trucking and transportation and products liability matters. She represents clients in a variety of civil disputes and is committed to providing efficient, detail-oriented representation while maintaining clear communication and practical solutions throughout the life of a case.

Prior to joining the firm, Gabrielle served as a judicial law clerk in South Carolina state courts and later worked as a prosecutor in two South Carolina judicial circuits. Her experience includes trying violent crime cases before juries and handling matters from investigation through trial. This background provides her with valuable courtroom experience and a strong foundation in advocacy, case strategy and litigation management.

Outside of work, Gabrielle enjoys cooking new recipes, reading, spending time with family and friends and searching for vinyl records to add to her growing collection. She also enjoys spending time with her dog, Jake.
