JACKSON, MS – Law firm McAngus Goudelock & Courie (MGC) is pleased to announce the addition of attorney Ginger Robey to their Jackson office. For nearly two decades, she has represented employers and insurance companies in workers' compensation matters. Robey is also a Certified Mississippi Workers' Compensation Mediator. She graduated cum laude with a Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law and summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Business Administration from Delta State University.

Robey is actively involved in various legal organizations, including the Mississippi Bar Association—where she serves as member at large for the Executive Committee of the Workers' Compensation Section—as well as the American Bar Association, Capital Area Bar Association, Madison County Bar Association, Mississippi Defense Lawyers Association and Mississippi Women Lawyers Association. She is also an advocate for Kids' Chance of Mississippi and serves on their fundraising committee.

In 2012, Robey was a graduate of Leadership Mississippi lead by the Mississippi Economic Council—a program built to develop and maintain a network committed to strengthening the quality of life in the state. She was also the 2018 recipient of the Mississippi Business Journal Leadership in Law Award, and has repeatedly been named in The Best Lawyers in America® and Mid-South Super Lawyers for her workers' compensation practice.
