J. Adam Ribock

COLUMBIA, SC

Adam Ribock's practice focuses on civil litigation, including personal injury, premises liability, construction defect claims, automotive and HOA litigation. With a decade of legal experience, his clients can expect availability, prompt and clear communication and a keen ability to determine the critical issues in each case. Adam is a partner with his clients, working together on effective strategy while knowing that each matter presents a unique set of facts. In 2023, he was a graduate of Leadership Columbia—a skills-building program that aims to develop emerging community leaders, while providing an educational experience with a strong emphasis on social and community awareness.

Prior to joining MGC, Adam served as a law clerk for Judge Michael P. Mills in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi. He also served as a law clerk for Judge L. Casey Manning, Circuit Court Judge for the 5th Judicial Circuit of South Carolina.

Adam is married with three children, and, when he's not chasing them around, he can be found coaching, watching and playing sports.
