J. Brady Biggs

KNOXVILLE, TN

Brady Biggs' practice focuses on motor vehicle litigation, premises liability and construction litigation at the firm's Knoxville office, where he represents carriers and their insureds. Brady believes in the importance of "maintaining open and consistent communication with clients." Prior to joining MGC as an attorney, he served as a law clerk at MGC's Richmond office, focusing primarily on motor vehicle and premises liability cases. Brady also worked as a summer associate at a law firm in Richmond, VA, where he focused on civil litigation matters.

In his free time, Brady enjoys running, hiking, playing guitar and spending time with friends and family.
