Jackson R. "Jack" Holcomb

RALEIGH, NC

---

Jack Holcomb focuses his practice on workers' compensation matters, representing insurance carriers. Jack brings a practical and client-focused approach to his work, helping clients navigate claims efficiently while working toward effective resolutions. He is committed to delivering thoughtful guidance and responsive service throughout the entire process.

Prior to joining the firm, Jack gained experience through internships focused on litigation, employment law and business law, as well as serving as a law clerk supporting workers' compensation matters. These experiences provided him with a strong foundation in legal research, case analysis and client service.

Outside of work, Jack enjoys movies, history and technology. A lifelong North Carolinian, he enjoys living in Raleigh and spending time with his wife, family and friends.
