Jessica Cobaugh Tyndall

RALEIGH, NC

Jessica Tyndall brings over a decade of experience in civil litigation, focusing on insurance coverage, catastrophic personal injury and professional liability matters. Jessica represents clients with a practical, solutions-driven approach shaped by her experience both in private practice and in the insurance industry.

Jessica previously served as a Commercial Claims Director with a national insurance company, where she led a team of claims professionals handling large-loss casualty matters across the eastern United States. Earlier in her career, she was a litigation attorney in the firm's Raleigh office, defending clients in complex, high-exposure cases. Jessica's combined experience in both law and claims management provides her with a comprehensive perspective on case strategy, risk evaluation and effective resolution.

Jessica resides in Raleigh with her husband and two children. Outside of the office, she enjoys spending time with her family and embracing life as a busy mom.
