Blair Albert focuses her practice on litigation, including motor vehicle litigation and premises liability. She represents homeowners and associations, businesses and drivers in a variety of civil matters. Blair emphasizes education and clear communication, helping clients understand the litigation process and feel informed as their cases progress.

Prior to joining the firm, Blair practiced personal injury law and gained additional experience in criminal defense and personal injury matters while advancing from a paralegal and law clerk to an attorney.

In her personal time, Blair enjoys the beach, boating, traveling and being near the water. She also enjoys relaxing at home with her cat, Louis.
