

Kara L. Hunter

PHILADELPHIA, PA

Kara Hunter's practice focuses on insurance coverage and litigation, where she represents insurance companies in complex coverage disputes and related litigation. With seven years of experience in insurance and coverage-driven matters, Kara brings a thoughtful and detail-oriented approach to advocating for clients while maintaining clear and consistent communication throughout the life of a case.

Prior to joining MGC, Kara practiced with several litigation firms where she handled environmental insurance coverage, commercial litigation, toxic tort litigation, food and beverage litigation, insurance defense matters, products liability matters, premises liability matters and regulatory compliance. She is a diligent litigator who has experience in both state and federal court systems. Her diverse background allows her to address complex factual and legal issues with a comprehensive and practical perspective.

In her personal time, Kara enjoys spending time with her family and friends, traveling and volunteering within her community.
