Kenneth R. Lange

RALEIGH, NC

GARDEN CITY, NY

Ken Lange's practice focuses on litigation, motor vehicle litigation and premises liability at the firm's Raleigh and Garden City offices, where he represents insured companies and insured individuals. With over two decades of experience, Ken understands the importance of "finding ways to streamline litigation and come to an early resolution where possible."

Prior to joining MGC, Ken practiced law in New York with a focus on liability defense, motor vehicle litigation and insurance coverage. He has tried cases in nine New York counties. Ken also has college-level teaching experience from teaching business law to undergraduate students at Molloy University in Rockville Centre, NY.

In Ken's personal time, he enjoys playing softball, golf and spending time with his family.
