Kindu A. Walker

ATLANTA, GA

---

For over two decades, Kindu Walker has represented insurance carriers, self-insureds, restaurants, retail companies, construction companies, apartment complexes and REITs in matters involving premises liability, products liability, motor vehicle litigation and trucking and transportation disputes. He has extensive trial experience, having served in more than 30 jury and non-jury trials, and regularly defends insurers and their insureds through every stage of the litigation process. Kindu is committed to being accessible when clients need him most, maintaining open lines of communication during and beyond regular business hours.

Kindu and his wife have three children and a dog named Coco. In his free time, he enjoys practicing Krav Maga, cheering on his children at their tennis and volleyball matches and helping with their training.
