

Lori Gilmore

RALEIGH, NC

With more than 15 years of experience, Lori represents parties in commercial litigation, real estate litigation, transportation and automobile litigation, professional liability, catastrophic loss and first-party defense. Understanding the insurance industry is key to successfully working with clients and she stays on top of the trends that will affect the outcome of clients' matters. Lori also presents seminars on a regular basis to clients on topics relevant to their respective industries.

Lori is married to a lawyer who practices in Wake County and they spend their free time chasing after their two children.
