COLUMBIA, SC – McAngus Goudelock & Courie (MGC), a regional insurance defense firm, is pleased to announce the four recipients of the 2021 MGC Diversity Scholarship. Introduced this year, the scholarship provides diverse law students with access to opportunities that will aid in their development as legal professionals. “The interest in the program was great, and we had fabulous applicants,” says Belong @ MGC chair, Amy Jenkins. “It was difficult to narrow the choices to just four winners!” The MGC Diversity Scholarship awarded $2,500 to each recipient for the 2021-2022 school year.

“Diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) has always been a vital part of MGC’s identity and culture,” says MGC managing member, Jay Courie. “In our commitment to building a diverse and equitable workplace, we extended the MGC Diversity Scholarship to diverse JD candidates who champion DEI in their communities. On behalf of the entire firm, I would like to congratulate our 2021 recipients.” They are as follows:
