NASHVILLE, TN – Law firm McAngus Goudelock & Courie (MGC) is pleased to announce the firm's recognition in the Nashville Business Journal's 2026 Best Places to Work program in the Medium company category. Honorees are selected based on employee feedback measuring key drivers of engagement, including workplace satisfaction and culture.

"We are incredibly honored to be recognized as one of the best places to work in Nashville," said MGC Managing Member Jay Courie. "Earning this distinction for the first time is especially meaningful, particularly as we celebrate 11 years in our Nashville office. We are committed to creating an environment where our team members feel supported, valued and empowered to grow, and this recognition is a testament to the strength of our people and the culture we've built together."
