Mia V. Tolliver

ALEXANDRIA, VA

Mia Tolliver's practice focuses on litigation in our Alexandria office, where she represents insurance companies in a variety of civil matters. Mia brings a proactive and client-focused approach to her work, emphasizing open communication and keeping clients informed of case developments, strategic considerations and opportunities for resolution throughout the litigation process.

Prior to joining MGC, Mia practiced as a litigation and trial attorney with a civil defense firm, where she gained experience handling matters from inception through resolution. In addition to her legal practice, she served as an advocacy coach for her law school, helping develop the next generation of trial advocates.

Originally from South Louisiana, Mia has spent eight years living in Florida. Outside of work, she enjoys reading, trying new restaurants, traveling and spending time with her nieces and nephews.
