Mustafa K. Turaani

RICHMOND, VA

Mustafa Turaani focuses his practice on litigation, representing individuals and businesses in civil matters. Mustafa takes a client-focused approach to his work, emphasizing accessibility and clear communication to ensure clients feel heard and understood throughout the litigation process.

Prior to joining MGC, Mustafa gained experience through internships with public defender offices at both the state and federal levels. These experiences provided him with a foundation in legal research, case preparation and client advocacy that he brings to his civil litigation practice.

Outside of work, Mustafa enjoys video games, going to the movies and playing pickleball with his wife.
