Noah A. Watson

JACKSON, MS

Noah Watson focuses his practice on workers' compensation matters, representing employers and insurance companies. Noah brings a detail-oriented approach to his work and is committed to the preparation and effort necessary to pursue the best possible outcome for each client.

Prior to joining MGC, Noah worked as a law clerk with a general practice firm, where he gained experience supporting plaintiff-side matters. He also conducted research into the history of firearm laws in Mississippi, strengthening his legal research and analytical skills.

In his personal time, Noah enjoys reading about history, watching sports and spending time with his wife and family.
