Olivia R. Menosky

ALEXANDRIA, VA

Liv Menosky focuses her practice on litigation in our Alexandria office. She emphasizes clear communication and determined advocacy, working to understand her clients' needs and develop strategies tailored to their goals.

Prior to joining the firm, Liv served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Michael Malone of the Anne Arundel County Circuit Court, where she gained valuable insight into courtroom procedure. Her clerkship experience provided a strong foundation for evaluating complex legal issues and approaching litigation from a practical, well-rounded perspective.

Outside of work, Liv enjoys rock climbing, running, cheering for Michigan State basketball and spending time with family.
