Scarlett Sloane

NASHVILLE, TN

Scarlett Sloane focuses her practice on litigation, commercial litigation and slander/defamation in MGC's Nashville office. Scarlett utilizes her "unique background in international affairs to create creative solutions to the complex issues client's encounter." She is bilingual, speaking both Spanish and English.

Prior to joining MGC, Scarlett focused on general civil litigation, immigration, business and family law as an associate attorney at a Nashville law firm. Additionally, she has jury trial experience as a second chair.

Outside of MGC, Scarlett enjoys spending time with her husband and their Bernese Mountain Dog, Stella. She also enjoys traveling and spending time outdoors with her family.
