Tameika Jackson

ATLANTA, GA

Tameika Jackson’s practice focuses on construction litigation, motor vehicle litigation and premises liability in MGC’s Atlanta office, where she represents insurance carriers. With over a decade of experience practicing law, Tameika knows the importance of “zealously advocating for [clients] and providing each of them with individualized attention while helping to navigate the legal process with confidence.” Prior to joining MGC, she was a public defender in Florida, served as staff counsel for an insurance company and, most recently, she practiced trucking and premises liability litigation at a firm in Atlanta.

In Tameika’s personal time, she enjoys traveling with her family, trying out new recipes and exploring different parks with her two children.
